

K-Love is an important radio station for me and my family. It's the only radio station I can keep going continuously in my home since I have small children. With all the filth on the air-waves today, I would be forced to turn off the radio since most kids (including my own) are so impressionable.